15 Defendant Jose Carlos Chase has moved the Court to require the Clerk to 16 certify and authenticate the file in this case. Given the attachment to the motion 17 which indicates a dispute as to how to calculate his sentencing credits, it appears that 18 the defendant seeks a certified copy of the judgment of conviction (Doc. 294). The 19 Clerk shall provide a certified copy of the judgment of conviction to the defendant.

1 His motion for certified documents is GRANTED as to Doc. 294, but otherwise
2 DENIED.

3 The Defendant also seeks relief contending that the Bureau of Prisons has not 4 credited him with pre-conviction detention in state court. This claim goes to the 5 execution of the sentence and must be raised in the district where the defendant is 6 confined – the Central District of California – pursuant to a petition for a writ of 7 habeas corpus under 28 U.S.C. 2241. Brown v. United States, 610 F.2d 672, 677 (9th
8 Cir. 1980); McRae v. Rios, 2013 WL 1758770, at *2 (E.D. Cal. Apr 24, 2013);
9 Hawkins v. Winn, 2013 WL 6800913, at *2 (D. Ariz. Dec. 23, 2013). Therefore, the 10 request for relief is denied without prejudice.

11 GRANTED IN PART AND DENIED IN PART

12 IT IS SO ORDERED.
